Our School Sponsorship Program is Getting an Upgrade!

Thanks to [Sponsor Name], your school's FREE access to the My First Nest Egg program is continuing—with new enhancements!

You'll now receive even more engaging, age-appropriate financial literacy resources to help teach essential money skills—at no cost to you. Here's what's included:

Stand Out as a My First Nest Egg Certified School

- Continue leading the way in financial education—88% of parents believe it should be taught in schools. Becoming a My First Nest Egg Certified School is your chance to showcase your commitment, empower students with real-world money skills like saving, earning, budgeting, and entrepreneurship, and stand out as a leader in future-ready learning.

Unlock a Library of Quick, Easy-to-Use Financial Education Resources

- You'll soon notice a major upgrade to your digital library. While your password stays the same, you'll enjoy a cleaner, more user-friendly interface and access to an even larger collection of classroom materials.

Bring Money Lessons to Life with Expert Presentations

- Your sponsoring financial institution will, upon request, lead in-person sessions that make financial concepts fun, engaging, and easy for students to understand. Simply contact your Sponsor for more information.

Monthly Printables That Make Learning Fun

- Each month, students will continue to enjoy seasonal, holiday-themed worksheets that blend financial education with timely, age-appropriate fun—perfect for keeping lessons fresh and festive all year long.

All-In-One Access to Financial Education Tools

- Sponsored schools receive full access to our digital teacher platform, kid-friendly financial news articles, classroom economy tools, and more—everything you need to bring financial literacy to life in your school.
